Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Take your writing to the next level!

In honor of World Press Freedom Day, the U.S. Embassy in Addis Ababa invites all University Students to participate in an investigative reporting writing competition. Students are encouraged to submit a piece of investigative reporting in English in the form of a written piece (with or without photos) or a video on any topic they choose. The investigative journalism report pieces are to be submitted via email and will be vetted and judged by the Public Affairs Section of the embassy.

Participants are invited to attend and receive their certificates at the ceremony, where the winners will be announced on the 31st of May.
